By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

All this — and Don Larsen for his ninth victory as the Baltimore Orioles downed the Cleveland Indians, 12-4, and Jackie Jensen and Ted Williams homered to lead the Boston Red Sox to a 10-3 triumph over the Detroit Tigers in the other American League games.

The Milwaukee Braves retained their half-game lead in the National League struggle when they beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7-4 and 6-3. The Cincinnati Redlegs swept the Philadelphia Phillies, 6-1 and 6-2; the St. Louis Cardinals whipped the New York Giants, 7-1, after a 3-3 defeat and the Brooklyn Dodgers rebounded from a 1-1 loss to defeat the Chicago Cubs, 5-1, in other games.

Larsen didn't walk a batter and yielded Kansas City's run on an eighth inning home by Hector Lopez. Tom Stuchevit won his seventh game in the opener.

Sievers' second home of the day and 18th of the season enabled the Senators to gain a split in a wild doubleheader with the White Sox.

Wednesday, when the Senate is to start a long Fourth of July week-end.

Administration forces indicate they plan a fight to protect the nearly one billion dollars the Senate Appropriations Committee has restored from the fiscal year cash cuts totaling $1,220,000,000.

They said they had no hope of inducing the Senate to increase the bill any further, and that they the substantial victory the administration won in the committee.

An analysis showed that Congress so far has trimmed $1,143,212,667 from nine appropriations bills for the new fiscal year. Each of these measures was but below President Eisenhower's requests.

Ten-game winner Billy Pierce pitched the ninth to preserve the White Sox' opening game victory. Lay Doby had six hits, including two home runs, of the Sox during the doubleheader.

Larsen struck out nine as he notched his seventh straight victory for the Orioles, who won a series from the Indians for the first time since they turned to the American League in 1954.

War Brides Not Greedy, Says New German Wife

Dear Dorothy Dix: I was very much upset at a recent article in which a mother-in-law complains about her son's German wife. I'd like you to know that this certainly is not the character of the average German girl.

I came here three years ago from Munich and am very much ashamed of the situation outlined in this letter.

I was a postal employee and didn't receive any money from my husband for several months prior to my trip here. I know many girls who were honest with their GI husbands and who came here with every intention of being good wives and mothers. Please present the other side of the story.

F. M.

Dear F. M.: I have the utmost admiration and respect for war brides of any nationality and many times have devoted space in praise of them. It's no easy task to leave country, family and friends to enter a strange land and adjust to it. With very few exceptions, the girls our GI's brought back have succeeded wonderfully well. You for instance, wrote a beautiful letter (sorry I couldn't print all of it) in excellent English. Not many Americans who spent three years in Germany could do as well in German.

Unfortunately, there are always a few people in any situation who won't play a fair game. These are the people who create problems and the ones who are the subjects of letters sent to me. I sincerely hope they aren't taken as typical of a group.

May you have many years of peace and happiness in your adopted country.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My sister-in-law has some things of mine I'd like returned. I've asked for them many times, but she always has an excuse. How can I get them back without being rude?

D. A. B.

Dear D. A. B.: The next time you're visiting at her home, ask for the articles. Tell her you'll wait, patiently, while she rounds them up. If she continues to raise excuses, talk to her husband. If that fails, consult an attorney.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Is it a violation of custom not to dress in black for one's husband's funeral? Did I show disrespect for my husband by wearing navy blue? — X. Y.

Dear X. Y.: Customs come and customs go; the one concerning heavy mourning garb has made an exit almost everywhere. People usually wear black to the funeral, but certainly it's not an iron-clad rule to do so. The degree of your grief can scarcely be measured by color.

The Bolsheviks, with Lenin as premier, ruled Russia from 1917 until 1924. In that year Joseph Stalin came into power.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation for the many kindnesses extended us during our recent bereavement.

Thought For The Day
None so little enjoy themselves,

selves, as those who have nothing

Thought For The Day
If a man has a talent and cannot use it, he has failed; if he has a talent and uses only half of it, he has partly failed; but if he has a talent and learns somehow to use the whole of it, he has gloriously succeeded, and won a satisfaction and triumph few men ever know. — Thomas Wolfe said it.

Nexed his 18th victory with his 14th complete game in the 5-2 opener.

The sweep stretched Nashville's lead over Atlanta to a full game.
The Crackers, humiliated 20-6 by Mobile Saturday night, blanked the tailend Braves 2-0 behind rookie
Don Nottebart's 5-hitter.

Chattanooga, playing its Engel Stadium hex over Memphis to the hit, dropped the slumping Chicks into a virtual tie with Birmingham 5-1. The onrushing Barons called for an 8-6 verdict over New Orleans.

Nashville righthander Kelly, curving his way back to the big leagues, won his ninth straight in the opener against Little Rock. A 3-run homer by Skisler in the third gave the Vol ace all the runs he needed.

Hal Boyle

Bob, "particularly if they're doing a show for charity I believe in."

The stern anxieties of comedy that have driven many present day funny men to psychoanalysis leave Boyle untroubled.

"I'm not a couch man myself," my returned home Wednesday from Beebe where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. DePriest.

Mr. and Mrs. Imen Gee were Wednesday visitors in Texarkana.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Underwood had as their Wednesday guests, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Benada and Robin of Lake Charles, La.

Mrs. Doyle Moore and children of Denver, Colorado are the guests of her mother, Mrs. Al Loomis and other relatives.

Miss Fay Loomis and Mrs. Roy Loomis spent Wednesday in Texarkana.

Mrs. Price Ramsey, Scotty and Barbara returned to their home in Center, Texas on Wednesday after a visit with her mother, Mrs. E. C. Silvers.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Johnson have had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Berry, Tony and Allen of Los Angeles, Calif.

Mrs. Howard Lusby and Carol Jane have returned to North Little Rock after several days visit with Mrs. Fannie Newth and Mrs. Mildred Dawson.

Mrs. N. R. Nelson and son, Lynn have returned from Searcy where they were the guests of Mrs. N. B. Nelson.

Mrs. Charlie Thomas attended the Wesleyan Guild Jurisdictional Seminar held at Mt. Sequoyah near Fayetteville last week. Mrs. Thomas was a conference delegate.

Mrs. Lela Hays is spending the summer in Dallas, Texas as the guest of Mrs. Helen Rogers and Mrs. Jess Morris.

he said. "And I'm not sad-just disgustingly normal."

"Every comedian is an individual, but television—the problem of trying to be funny every week—can drive anyone to the couch."

"It gives a man the feeling he's in a rut. It takes a lot of work sometimes to get rid of that feeling. I think the best answer is to change, to try something different."

Hope feels he escaped the danger of "rust" by starring in "Beau James," the life story of former Mayor Jimmy Walker.

"It was more of a straight dramatic role. One problem I had was that the mayor was a skinny guy. I had to lose 15 pounds. I did it on a diet of lamb chops, fruit salad and yogurt."

Tension causes many casualties in show business as well as in every other industry, and Bob has his own recipe to avoid it.

"There is very little tension when you're doing something you really know. What will really make you blow up is to try to do something for the first time at the last moment. The answer is to be prepared — and avoid emergencies."

Hope is a multimillion dollar property himself and like the good businessman he is, he takes care of his physical as well as his financial assets.

"My grandfather died a month short of his 100th birthday," said Bob. "He believed in moderation and I'll be happy to match his."

Admitted: Mr. James Cecil Rogers, Hope, Mr. Hiram Halford, Rt. 1, Hope, Hazel Smith, Rt. 1, McNab, Mrs. Dave Curtis, Rt. 1, Hope, Mr. Jolly Stuart, Washington, Freeman Prater, Hope, Mrs. record.

"I play golf a little oftener than President Eisenhower, and a little better and I take bending exercises twice a day. I also like to get a massage every day if I can. Nothing is more relaxing."

What defeats most people in life and keeps them from success "Over-eating," said Hope, "and marrying the wrong girl."

Hospital Notes

Discharged: Mrs. James Miller, Mrs. Virgil Bobo, Hope, Rt. 1, Hope, LaNelle Booker, Hope, Miss Bess Trimble, Washington, Sue Davis, Hope, Mrs. P. G.
